PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"IF THERE BE NO MAN TO SAVE US"

The above words are taken from the story of God's ancient people, from an incident in that story that began very badly (I Sam.11). Nahash, King of the Ammonites, had threatened to put out the right eye of each of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead. The Israelite nation as a whole was so obviously in such sorry plight that Nahash, in order to make his triumph the greater, was willing to delay his cruel threat for a week, willing to give the people of Jabesh opportunity to seek a deliverer. It seemed as though there was not even one potential leader in the entire nation.

The grace of God, however, provided a man—the newly-crowned King Saul. He had the capacity of leadership that was required, he alone could prevent God's people from going down in ignominious defeat.

The world today is in need: no one would think of denying that fact. The great need is for leaders, for those who can step out in front and show men and women the way to go, who can give a sure word of direction.

The function of Toronto Bible College is, by the grace of God, to help provide God-called, God-directed, God-controlled leaders, men and women who know God through Christ in personal experience and who, therefore, can show others the way.

We praise God for our graduating class of 1955. We thank Him that they go out to show their fellow-men the answer to the world's problem. There is only one real problem—sin; and there is but one real answer—Jesus Christ. Our graduates go forth to proclaim Christ's substitutionary death, to point a lost world to the fountain flowing from the cross that can cleanse sin's defilement, that can make man acceptable in the sight of a holy God.

May God's rich blessing go with you, "fifty-fivers"; may He enable you to be real leaders, to bring much glory to His most worthy name.

REV. E. L. SIMMONDS, Principal

GRADUATING CLASS

CLASS EXECUTIVE

Absent: Ruth Greenhill.

FREDERICK CHARLES ALLAN, Toronto, Ontario.

Devot. '53-'54; Cabinet, Miss. Leader '54-'55.

"Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you that ye should go . . ." Salvation, bringing a new purpose to life, has given Fred the desire to take the gospel to those who have not heard. He has already served with the CSSM in British Columbia and looks forward to the foreign field in the future.

JEAN CORALIE BENNETT, Severn Bridge, Ontario.

Broadcast Committee, '53-'54, '54-'55.

As a Christian business girl, Jean was led to enter the Toronto Bible College in preparation for home mission work. Hospital visitation and Sunday School teaching took up a good part of Jean's time while at school. This experience, along with her classroom work will be tapped on many occasions in the future. (Isaiah 30:15).

JANICE MARION BINDER, Blandford, Massachusetts.

Evangelistic Committee, '53-'54; Cabinet Secretary, '54-'55.

Following high school, Janice worked in an insurance office, where a Christian friend assisted in her conversion. God led Janice on to T.B.C., and in this environment has developed and used her musical talent. She intends to take still more musical training and make this art a medium of Christian service. (Ps. 57:7).

MURRAY MORTIMER CLARK, B.A., Toronto, Ontario.

Gateway Comm., '53-'54; Cabinet Devot. Leader, '54-'55.

After receiving his degree, Murray taught high school in Ontario, and then transferred to a school in Ethiopia. There he bowed to the claims of Christ. And now, after two years at T.B.C., in which he has made a significant contribution to student life, Murray will return to Africa—this time as a missionary. (Ps. 62:5).

WILFRED PHILLIP DESY, Welland, Ontario.

Devot. Comm, '53-'54; Cabinet, Assoc. Eran. Leader, '54-'55.

T.B.C. drew Wilf into study for his Lord not long after he came to a saving knowledge of Christ. Carpentry, young people's work, and a student pastorate have helped to fit him for his future task. Phil. 3:8, 9 is Wilf's heart-felt cry.

ROY EDWARD DIXON, Toronto, Ontario.

Soc. Comm., '52-'53; Gateway, '53-'54; Head Boy, '54-'55.

At nine, Roy yielded his heart to Christ, and later served in many offices in his home church. He dedicated his life to Christ at a Y.F.C. rally, and took the next step to T.B.C. for Bible study and training for service where the Lord leads. His training and consecrated versatility promise well for the future. (Ps. 32:8).

GABRIELE IRENE DROESCHER,

Baden-Baden, Hauptstrasse, Germany.

Devot. Comm., '53-'54; Evang. Comm., '54-'55.

When her father died, Gabriele was forced to help support her family. Then she came to Canada, was converted here in 1951; and entered T.B.C. a year later. Her quickness in grasping a foreign language and her penetration into the deep things of Christ will carry her far in service in Quebec. (2 Cor. 2:14).

HARRY ELLER, Tallinn, Estonia.

Miss, '53-'54; Devot. '54-'55.

Harry is one of our European students, but accepted Christ as Saviour over here in 1952. At present working with the C.N.R. Express, part-time, he intends to continue his studies as the Lord leads. Mark 16:20 means much to him.

RUTH JANE FOX, Toronto, Ontario.

Broadcast Comm., '53-'54; Evang. Comm. & Class Exec., '54-'55.

In childhood Ruth blossomed into faith, and then grew up to be in turn an efficient teletype operator and Bible School student. She has taught Sunday School and served with distinction at the Bronte Summer Camp. After further training, Ruth looks forward to the mission field. (Phil. 4:13).

RUTH MILLICENT GREENHILL, Oshawa, Ontario.

Evan. '53-'54; Soc. and Class Executive '54-'55.

The prayers of godly parents aided in Ruth's salvation. Her training, beside T.B.C. studies has consisted largely of S.S. work, having spent a summer with D.V.B.S. in Quebec. At the close of school, Ruth hopes to begin training as a nurse, seeking to use every talent for the Master. (Phil 1:6).

CYRIL E. GRIFFITH, Hamilton, Bermuda.

Evang. Comm., '52-'53, '53-'54; Soc. Comm. and Class Exec. '54-'55.

In the mornings a student; in the afternoons a motor mechanic; some evenings a student again; and on weekends a busy Christian worker, running a three-year gamut in child evangelism, S.S. teaching, choral and mission work, all out of gratitude for early saving grace and present satisfaction—that is our Cyril. (Luke 22:42). He was elected '55 Class President.

WILLIAM WALTER HEATH, Toronto, Ontario.

Evan. Comm. '52-'53; Devot. Comm. '54-'55.

A small white paper in the form of a tract led Bill to realize his need of Christ. T.B.C. then opened the way for further training. With open air work as his main interest, Bill looks forward to the future, confident that He who has begun a good work in him "will perform it unto the day of Christ." His favourite verses are Matt. 28:19, 20.

LEONID KOROW'NYK, Newark, New Jersey.

Evang. Comm., '52-'53, '54-'55; Broadcast Comm., '53-'54.

Leo's pedigree goes back to the hard-working people of the Ukraine. Since his conversion and arrival at T.B.C., his fidelity to his studies and to his friends has taken him over many a hurdle. He has done some preaching and is a faithful S.S. teacher. After further training Leo expects to enter the pastorate. (John 14:6).

GALINA KRUBERG, Tallinn, Estonia.

Broadcast Comm., '53-'54; Head Girl, '54-'55.

Galina, our linguist of '52-'55, came from far-away Estonia via college training at Vienna and business experience in Montreal. Her dedicated gifts, personal, academic and social, have made her a beloved leader, a scholarship winner, and Head Girl! Her skill in European languages is often tapped in home mission work. (Ps. 73:28).

CARMEN GWENDOLYN MALCOLM, Preston, Ontario.

Gateway Co-Editor, '53-'54; Assoc. Head Girl, '54-'55.

Carmen entered T.B.C. as a paediatric nurse. She has taught in Bible Clubs, and spent a summer under the C.S.S.M. in British Columbia. Her capacity for taking pains and her ability to maintain a devotional atmosphere while engaging in strenuous work give promise of long-time service among the lepers. (Psalm 94:17).

KATHLEEN CHRISTINA MICKS, Barrie, Ontario.

Soc., '51-'52, Broadcast Comm., '52-'53; Miss'y Comm. & Class Treas., '53-'54.

Kay's spiritual enlightenment occurred while she was attending high school, and it led her on to T.B.C. Here she has found ample scope for her artistic ability and her native humour. Last summer she was Sports Director at the Bronte Fresh Air Camp. Next year she will wear a nurse's cap at Wellesley Hospital. (Ps. 55:22).

DAVID RUSSELL MITTON, Hamilton, Ontario.

Social '52-'53; Gateway '53-'54; Assoc. Head Boy '54-'55.

At the age of fourteen, Dave found Christ as his Saviour. After working as a printer and pressman, the Lord called him to T.B.C. "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and he shall direct thy paths." This verse means much to Dave because the Lord has directed him to serve in the beautiful West Indies.

BEVERLY IONE MOXAM, Copper Cliff, Ontario.

Evang. Comm., '51-'52, '54-'55; Soc. Com., '53-'54.

Beverly comes from the copper and nickel country, but nothing is cheap about her! Spiritually she is a product of the DVBS. During her T.B.C. years, in addition to regular Sunday School teaching and work with a crafts class, she has had a summer in vacation school work in Gaspe, Quebec. I Peter 5:7 undergirds her future.

MARILYN JEAN PANKE, Woodbridge, Ontario.

Soc. Comm., '52-'53, '53-'54; Cabinet, (Social Leader), '54-'55.

Converted at a youth rally, this accounting clerk soon presented her life to Christ for service. During her training at T.B.C., part-time office work cared for day-to-day expenses; in "off hours" Marilyn has engaged in children's work. The mission field is her goal. (Phil. 1:6).

INER CARSON ROBINSON, Maynooth Station, Ontario.

Evang. Comm., '52-'53, '53-'54; Cabinet (Evang. Leader), '54-'55.

No "mere pencil pusher" before arriving at the Bible College, Iner is an out-of-doorsman: road construction and lumbering. Saved in March, 1950, he arrived at school in September. Now, having laid the axe to the roots of theology, and served for a summer under the CSSM, Iner will proceed to further training. (Phil. 1:6).

EVERETT LLOYD SEDGWICK, Norwood, Ontario.

Evang. Comm. (Hospital Leader, '53-'54, Jewish Work, '54-'55).

"The man who left the plow for the pulpit"—one fancies that often in the future, possibly in Quebec, this by-line will creep into notifications of the coming missionary. A missionary on furlough "activated" Everett, and T.B.C. has taught him to "toil terribly" over spelling and theology. (Ps. 27:14).

JANETTA SMALL, Ottawa, Ontario.

Broadcast Comm. '53-'54; Cabinet Treas. '54-'55.

"Good things come in Small packages." With this proverb, African natives are sure to agree at the next stage in Janetta's career. She accepted Christ as Saviour at the age of seven. Then, after high school, and several years' experience in banking, she came to T.B.C. Her many extra-curricular activities have included ISCF work. (Psalm 16:8).

KATHLEEN MARY SMITH, Dorval, Quebec.

Miss. Comm., '53-'54; Soc. Comm., '54-'55.

This petite stenographer, accepting Christ as Saviour at nineteen, found that by continuing her business career on a part-time basis in Toronto, she could take the day course at T.B.C. In out-of-school hours Kay has been a hospital visitor and Sunday School teacher, and has served most acceptably with the Toronto City Mission. (2 Cor. 12:19).

KENNETH J. SMITH, St. Andrew, Jamaica, B.W.I.

Ass't Devot. Leader, '52-'53; Broadcast Editor, '53-'54.

Early in his T.B.C. career Ken achieved distinction as the Golden Voice. He can preach a good sermon at the drop of a hat, and we can guarantee that no one will nod, except in assent. He has his own scheme for memorizing Greek vocabulary and doubtless it will be employed again where Ken goes next—on to university. (Isa. 43:1).

MARY ELAINE THOMAS, Lorne Park, Ontario.

Devot. '52-'53; Miss. '53-'54; Cabinet (Publications) '54-'55.

Mary was saved two years after leaving high school. While serving in an office, T.B.C. beckoned as the place for training for whatever service might be ahead. During her three years at school, she has engaged mainly in children's and deaconess work. "Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." (1 Cor. 6:19, 20).

"Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only" is a Scriptural injunction which laid a heavy claim upon Toronto Bible College in its formative years, and which has helped to mould the character of generations of students. Two principles which have guided the College in fulfilling the injunction are: the corporate leadership of the Holy Spirit and student self-government.

Each year the students elect twelve of their fellows who meet weekly as a Cabinet. After a devotional period, each leader presents the problems for the week from his committee: devotional, evangelistic, missionary, social, publications or nurse's. Decisions are reached through discussion and, in case of indecision, matters are deferred for prayer until the mind of the Holy Spirit can be discerned. Since every senior student is a member of a committee, cabinet decisions are a guiding factor in all phases of student life.

"Doing the word", however, is not confined to student life within the College. Each student is expected for one full school year, to teach in a Bible School and to help in the evangelistic services conducted in the hospital. These are two of the six units of practical work undertaken as an undergraduate.

The results of such training are far-reaching, helping to mould the character of future soldiers of the Cross. They learn something about working with others, and the larger lesson of facing the spiritual powers of darkness and of overcoming by the word of their testimony. Later they can solve the spiritual problems of the ministry. They have either met something akin to them in their student days, or they have learned how to apply these principles, relying upon the guidance of the Spirit of God.

EVENING CLASS GRADUATES

AUDREY ELEANOR BOWMAN, Toronto, Ontario.

Cabinet (Assoc. Head Girl) '53-'54, Cabinet (Head Girl); Class Exec. '54-'55.

"Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass." In her teens Audrey committed her way to the Lord and He becomes more precious to her each step of the way. As a payroll clerk and stenographer, she looks to the Lord for her place of service.

RONALD THEODORE ALLISON CLARK, Toronto, Ontario.

Devot. Comm. '52-'53, Cabinet: (Evan. Leader, Assoc. Head Boy, Class Presdinet) '53-'55.

"He must increase but I must decrease." At the age of eighteen, Ronald's mother's prayers were answered and the Lord Jesus became his Saviour. Since then preaching, teaching and piano repairing have taken up most of his time. When looking into the future, Ronald claims Psalm 37:5 as a light to his way.

HAZEL HAWES, Toronto, Ontario.

Devot. (leader) '54-'55.

An earnest Christian lady showed Hazel the love of the Lord Jesus. After accepting Him as Saviour, she immediately entered T.B.C. evening classes. Here she has studied with a view of doing children's work. She has already had some experience in this line. (Isa. 30:15).

LORNE GEORGE LICHTY, Toronto, Ontario.

Devot. (leader) '53-'54; Evan. (leader) '54-'55.

God placed Lorne in the ministry not more than a year ago. At T.B.C. he has found a deeper fellowship with Christ and fellow students. He looks forward to serving with his home church believing as Paul "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation." (Rom. 1:16).

JOHN JAMES McDONALD, Mimico, Ontario.

Evan. Comm. '52-'53; Cabinet (Assoc. Head Boy, Head Boy) '53-'55.

A gospel singer! After ten years with the Canadian Pacific Railway, John committed his talent to the Lord, and is now serving in the capacity of a gospel singer. Col. 3:16 is John's favourite verse: "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly . . . singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

MARY LAURA LE DREW MANNING, Toronto, Ontario.

Secretarial work has taken up most of Mary's time since she accepted Christ as her Saviour at the age of fourteen. Trusting Him for daily strength, she has served churches both in Newfoundland and Toronto. For the future, Mary hopes to serve her Lord full time, clinging to John 14:1.

EVELYN DOREEN THOMPSON, Toronto, Ontario.

Devot. Comm. '52-'53; Cabinet, (Social) '54-'55.

Doreen has been a faithful worker in her home church since she accepted the Saviour as her own. After graduation she desires to continue to serve Him here at home, but is willing to go if He but sends. Rom. 8:28 gives her the assurance of a plan for her future.

HOLDING FORTH AT EVEN

"Christ Hath For Sin Atonement Made, What a Wonderful Saviour".

How precious these words are to each one of us, and yet we know that this is the truth which is given to us through the study of God's Word each Tuesday and Thursday evening at Toronto Bible College. We can readily see the strength and wisdom of God's power as we partake of the Blessed Word of God and live and walk with Him in the light of Christian faith and love.

As we gather together at T.B.C., one cannot help but feel the fellowship that we share. It is a pure witness from within the hearts of those who come and have a sincere desire to know more of the Lord Jesus Christ and witness for Him from day to day. To those who attend T.B.C., there is a strong evidence that there are no denominational barriers and that we are truly made one in the Lord Jesus Christ. The time that is spent in our Devotional period, hearty singing of His praises in song, the joyful times at our social evenings, and the work together with our Christian friends in the Day Classes, all give us more zeal to learn more of the Word of God.

We can rejoice that we have the opportunity of spending this time in God's presence, and share in the practical work that is carried on. Here we can share a responsibility in bringing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to every kindred and every nation. Together we say "Thanks be to God for Toronto Bible College."

Head Boy, Evening Classes.
